

THINCR ANNOUNCEMENT

THINCR proudly congratulates Dr. Emmanuel Gutierrez on his selection to the ISARIC Leadership Programme for Scientists (ILPS) 2026–2027 Cohort.

Dr. Gutierrez was chosen following a competitive interview process, with the selection panel recognizing his experience, leadership potential, and commitment to strengthening research leadership.

This achievement reflects Dr. Gutierrez's dedication to advancing high-quality, collaborative, and impactful research. His participation in this international programme will further strengthen his leadership capabilities and contribute to THINCR's continuing efforts to develop the next generation of research leaders in the Philippines.

Congratulations, Dr. Emmanuel! Your THINCR family is proud of you and looks forward to supporting you throughout this exciting journey.
